

"Marvin K Mooney I don't care how Marvin K. Mooney will you please go now".

It is alleged that the above ditty was written by Dr. Seuss in 1972 about Richard Nixon after the Watergate fiasco. Unlike Marvin K Mooney and Richard Nixon I know that my time is now. Since November 1997, I have produced 111 issues of PA Pearls from the ER, maintained the www.erpearls.com website and dealt with all of the associated issues such as a crashed website, episodic losses of funding to cover production expenses, typos that some how were missed until they were in print and various other "incidents". It has been a labour of love so I have no regrets despite the periodic frustrations. Rather than say good-bye, I leave you with the Irish Blessing until we meet again.

May the road rise up to meet you, may the wind be ever at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face and the rain fall softly on your fields.
And until we meet again, may God hold you in the hollow of his hand.
